

HEROIC WORK
WAS IN VAINShip Stowaway Kept Companion From Drowning

IN BOSTON HARBOR TODAY

But When They Were Taken on Board a
Freighter After Three Hours of Struggle in Water, the Weaker Man Died.

Boston, June 9.—John Guidberg, a Russian stowaway, is dead and Max Seltig, his companion, is near death after spending three hours in the waters of Boston harbor, into which they leaped to-day from the liner, Winfredian, in an effort to escape deportation. The tragedy is a story of heroic effort on the part of Seltig, who was the stronger swimmer of the two and who held Guidberg up in the water until the men were taken from the water by men on the freighter, Greenbrier.

Both Guidberg and Seltig collapsed when they were taken on board the freighter, and Guidberg, who had been kept from drowning by the bravery of his companion, died a few minutes afterwards. It is not known whether Seltig will recover.

FAREWELL DINNERS

Given the Roosevelts in London by Ambassador Reid.

London, June 9.—Dorchester house, the residence of Whitlaw Reid, the American ambassador, was the scene yesterday of two functions in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt, a reception in the afternoon to the members of the Pittgrims and American societies, and a farewell dinner last night. Both were quiet affairs on account of the court mourning and the fact also that Mr. and Mrs. Reid are in mourning for the late Ogden Mills.

Several hundred persons attended the dinner including most of the prominent members of the American colony. Ambassador Reid and ex-President Taylor, a hostler, heard the terrified woman's cries and grappled with Garden, taking the weapon from him. Garden then fled the scene, crossing the line into Cornish, N. H., by the railroad bridge. Shortly after the man had made his escape State's Attorney E. R. Buck and Deputy Sheriff J. H. Kinsley were on his trail and they located him in the New Hampshire town without much trouble. Garden consented to return without requisition papers and was arraigned before Justice of the Peace F. S. Hale. He waived examination and was held for county court under bonds of $300, which as yet he has been unable to furnish.

WAR MAY BE IMMINENT.

Registration of Greeks in Turkey Begun,
Contemplating Their Expulsion.

Constantinople, June 9.—Contemplating the expulsion of all the Greeks living there, the Turkish government to-day began the registration of all that race in the country. This move is certain and on account of the long-standing Cretan dispute, there are fears that war is imminent. The young Turkish prestige with the people is believed to depend upon the retention of the islands.

KNOW FATE TO-NIGHT.

Sugar Trust Employees to Know the Worst Soon.

New York, June 9.—The sugar trust employees being tried for conspiracy will probably know their fate to-night, as the case goes to the jury late this afternoon. Clarence Lexow spoke for Gerhardt and Standfield for Holke, whose duties, he said, were such that Mansfield could know nothing of the customs fraud. Special assistant attorney general Stimpson closed for the prosecution.

O. E. S. ANNUAL MEETING.

Business Session To-day, With Reports and Election of Officers.

Burlington, June 9.—At the annual meeting of the Eastern Star, in this city, a business session was held to-day with an address, reports of the grand officers, and election of officers. A. G. Spaulding was elected grand patron, succeeding Dr. F. R. Stoddard of Shelburne, and Mrs. H. L. Sullivan of Bennington was elected grand matron. There was an attendance of over 200.

WILL PRESIDE

H. Charles Royce Over the First District
Republicans.

St. Albans, June 9.—H. Charles Royce of this city has accepted an invitation to preside over the Republican district convention to be held in Burlington on June 28.

Prospective Citizens Must Wait.

Burlington, June 9.—Because Judge J. L. Martin is still busy with the sugar cases in New York the sessions of United States court for naturalization purposes, which were to have been held this week at Montpelier, Burlington and Rutland, will be postponed. The court will meet in this city June 21, in Burlington June 22 and in Montpelier June 23.

High School to Be Dedicated.

Franklin, June 9.—The new high school building will be dedicated here next Tuesday afternoon, at which time the principal address will be delivered by State Superintendent Mason S. Stone of Montpelier. A feature will be exhibits from all the grades of work done during the year.

CLAMOROUS FOR TAFT.

Wisconsin Republicans Were Noted in Their Approval.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 9.—The Republican state convention resolved itself into a mass meeting last night to listen to an address by Vice-President James S. Sherman. Mr. Sherman was received with loud acclaim. When he took the floor, he said that when he received the invitation to come to Milwaukee to address the Republican convention he was urged by President Taft to accept it; that the president was interested in Wisconsin and was anxious that the party in this state become united. The vice-president said that "we want leaders, but not self-constituted leaders."

Throughout the delivery of his address, Mr. Sherman was frequently interrupted with outbursts of applause. Especially was this so when he referred to President Taft.

Denunciation of the insurgents and commendation of the Republican national administration marked the number of speeches at the first session of the convention yesterday. Every mention of President Taft's name was followed by a demonstration.

It seemed to be the consensus that the platform will deal entirely with national issues, endorsing President Taft and criticizing Republican officeholders not in sympathy with his policies.

Executive Chairman Emanuel L. Phillips in introducing the temporary chairman, Michael E. Dillon of Ashland, extolled the national administration and adversely criticized the insurgents and every speaker who followed spoke along the same lines and pleaded for harmony.

Judge Levi H. Bancroft of Richland Center, leader of the La Follette faction, who was chosen as permanent chairman, Michael E. Dillon of Ashland, extolled the national administration and adversely criticized the insurgents and every speaker who followed spoke along the same lines and pleaded for harmony.

OVER A SPAN
OF 40 YEARSGraduate of Goddard's First
Class Brought His Message

TO THE ALUMNI TODAY

Rev. Henry D. Stevens of Sterling, Mass.,
One of the Speakers at Alumni
Gathering at School on the Hill—Other Features.

The annual exercises by the alumni association of Goddard seminary were held at 11 o'clock this morning in the chapel, which was well filled with alumni and friends of the school. The exercises were among the most enjoyable held by the association for several years past.

Miss Blanche J. Tilden, 79, of Barre, president of the alumni, presided over the exercises, which were as follows: Piano solo, (a) "Alma Mater," op. 39, No. 3, Mendelssohn; (b) "Berceuse," op. 22, No. 3, Kargarsky, played by Miss Bessie E. Spear, '08, of Barre; prayer by the Rev. J. Harry Holden, '81, of Roxbury, Mass.; poem, Mrs. Edith Talbot Webster, '20, of Burlington; oration, "The Need for a Higher Type of Educated Men," by Rev. Henry D. Stevens, '70, reading, "Court Scene in Merchant of Venice," by Irvin T. Potter, '00, of Boston.

Henry D. Stevens, the orator of the day, was graduated from Goddard in the first class to go out from the doors of the institution, forty years ago, and he stated at the opening of his address that he received the invitation to address the alumni on the occasion of its fortieth anniversary with great pleasure. There were four members of the class of '70, one of whom is now deceased, and the whereabouts of another member has not been known for many years. The four graduates were Rev. Charles H. Eaton, formerly pastor of the largest Universalist church in New York, who died at Tyngs, N. C., April 14, 1902; Frederick W. Eddy, A. B., who is now a newspaper writer in Strait settlement, Singapore; Rev. Henry D. Stevens, pastor of the Unitarian church in Sterling, Mass., and George B. Whitney, who has never been heard from since he graduated.

Rev. Mr. Stevens gave a scholarly and interesting address and was applauded in the midst of his speech when he declared that "Theodore Roosevelt was a genuine example of what courageous American citizenship means and can accomplish," and he added that he was glad that his work in the world was not yet finished. He also declared that though the women do not yet have the power of the ballot it was surely coming, as a simple act of human justice. Their influence, he asserted, was needed in the ballot and the political and social life of this country.

The exercises closed with the singing of the school song. The annual alumni dinner then followed in the dining hall at the postmaster's residence. Principal O. K. Hollister presided as toastmaster, and among the speakers were Rev. Henry Stevens, Rev. J. Harry Holden, Rev. J. Edward Wright, State Superintendent of Education Mason S. Stone, Orlando L. Martin, state commissioner of agriculture, George L. Bates of the class of 1890, Miss Blanche J. Tilden, president of the alumni association, and Clinton Scott, '09, of Newport.

The annual business meeting of the alumni association was called to order in the parlors at 9 o'clock this morning, and the only business transacted was the election of two alumni trustees, Dr. L. L. Leonard of Barre, Goddard '93, and Richard Robinson of Ferrisburgh, Goddard '97, to succeed George L. Bates, '00, of Barre and L. Rich Kent, '05, of Boston, whose terms expired. The usual $20 was voted for the prizes for prize speaking, and the meeting then adjourned until after the alumni dinner this afternoon.

The annual meeting of the trustees of the school was called together this morning in the library by President Charles H. Darling of Burlington. Only business of routine nature was transacted, and they will meet again this evening.

FOUR GRADUATES IN MUSIC

With Others in Department Gave a Program at Goddard.

A large audience was present at Goddard hall last evening to listen to the concert by the music department, in which there are four graduates. Only words of praise for the work of the various participants were heard. The four graduates are Emily M. Benedict of Barre, Marion M. Raymond of Springfield, Mass., Ethel E. Lamberton of Marshfield and Mary L. Wells of Barre. The concert was under the auspices of the instructors, Miss Alice Averill and L. G. Griffith. The program was as follows:

Allegro con grazia from the Symphony
Pachelbel, Miss Benedict
Two Larks, Miss Benedict
Diva's Pleading, Miss Carson
Egyptian Dance, Miss Wells
Kannemol-Ostrow, Rubenstein
April Morn., Miss Raymond
Dream of Love, No. 3 in A flat, Liszt

RECORD BANQUET HELD

Annual Event Last Evening Attended by 110 People—Mrs. O. J. Dodge of
Class of 1895 Was Elected
President for Next Year.

The record attendance at a Spaulding alumni banquet was present last night at the fourteenth annual affair in the vestry of the Congregational church, and the record graduating class was received into membership, the class of 1910 numbering 92 members. The banquet was seated according to classes, the faculty and members of the first class occupying the head table, and every class since 1894 being represented, covers being laid for 110 persons.

The ladies of the Congregational society scored their usual success in serving a first-class menu, which was much appreciated by the banqueters, and the service itself was prompt. However, it will not be long before another and larger hall will have to be secured in order to accommodate all those who may wish to attend, although the alumni will probably not find any more satisfactory arrangements than they have had in recent years.

After the tables had been cleared, the toastmaster, Perry, '96, rapped for order and introduced Pape, '95, who gave the welcome to the incoming class in his usual hearty manner. The response for the class was given by Howard Miles, president of 1910, and he voiced the class' appreciation of the honor.

At this point, the announcement of the winners of the English prizes, awarded this year for the first time by the alumni, was made by H. H. Jackson of the faculty. The winners were: Let. Syracuse Roman, '10, 2d, Winifred Tierney, '11, 3d, Mary Jordan, '12. The prizes, which were $5, $3 and $2, will be given the three successful contestants at once. After that, the alumni decided to not only offer similar prizes for the coming year, but to offer an additional prize of the same total for some other line of scholarship-studying, the details of the contest to be left with the faculty and a committee of three alumni to be appointed.

Higgins, '97, was called upon to speak on the general subject of athletics, and the particular topic of the new alumni athletic association, which had been formed during the year to co-operate with the students in the government of athletics in the school. Mr. Higgins recommended that while the system had not worked out to the entire satisfaction of the framers of it, he was nevertheless confident that it would be more successful the coming year.

In accordance with the constitution of the athletic association, three alumni were last night elected to serve on the board of control, together with the faculty members and the student members. The three alumni chosen were J. T. Kenefick, '06, J. F. Higgins, '97, and Loren Bell, '07, the first for three years, the second for two years and the third for one year.

Considerable other business was taken up, including the report of the committee to revise the constitution of the Spaulding Alumni association, which was referred again for other revision; the report of the new necrology committee, showing five deaths of graduates during the year; the report of the permanent secretary, Mrs. William Wales; and the report of the treasurer, Reed, '97, which showed that the dues were better paid up last year than ever before, the total amount in the treasury being $193.

BARRE STORE SOLD

Smith Company Business Purchased by H. O. Staples.

The Smith company has sold its business to H. O. Staples of Portland, Me. Mr. Staples has several large clothing stores in New England, one of which is the Syracuse Clothing Co. of Burlington, which is one of the leading stores of that city. He is also connected with David Alder & Sons of Milwaukee, Wis., one of the largest manufacturers of high grade clothing in this country. It is understood that possession will be given July 5.
